

After the Night

After the Night
A bird lost in flight
Is he free?
Where will he fly?
After the night

Well I'm healing inside from the broken heart you left me

After the night
You never even said goodbye to me
Who did you run to?
After the night

Well I'm healing inside from the broken heart you left me
Way back when we met
I wasn't broken yet
If I can get back to that will you love me?

After the night
You never even said goodbye to me
Now I'm starting to see
A new life for me

And I'm healing inside from the broken heart you left me
Way back when we met.
I wasn't broken yet
If I can get back to that,
would you love me?

After the night
After the night
After the night

ooh..
